

U.S. Small Business Administration
WOMEN'S BUSINESS CENTERS

What is the Women's Business Center Program?

Women's Business Centers (WBCs) represent a national network of more than 100 educational resource centers designed across the country to assist women start and grow small businesses. WBCs operate with the mission to level the playing field for women entrepreneurs, who still face unique obstacles in the world of business.

BiGAUSTIN Women's Business Center

1050 E. 11th St., Ste. 350
Austin, Texas 78702

Website: www.bigaustin.org

E-mail: info@bigaustin.org

Phone: 512.928.8010

Call or e-mail the center for small business counseling, training, roundtable discussions and networking opportunities.

South Texas Women's Business Center

1901 S. Alamo Suite 283
San Antonio, Texas 78204

Website: www.stwbc.com

E-mail: claudia.guzman@sanantonio.gov

Phone: 210.207.3938

Fax: 210.207.3939

WBCs are partially funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.